NEW

mangosteen

Kinda peachy,
sorta lychee,
fully beachy.

Tropical fizz

Our mangosteen seltzer was created in collaboration with our dear friends at Épicerie Pumpui, the bright and bustling Thai curry house in Montreal's Little Italy. The mangosteen is a sweet, tangy fruit bomb that is often likened to a cross between a peach and a lychee. This drink pairs perfectly with a host of Southeast Asian favourites like Pumpui's fiery pad kaprao or a sweet and salty bánh mì sandwich. With its refreshing, tropical notes and crisp bubbles, mangosteen le seltzer is also the perfect elixir on a hot summer day.

FRINGEONS ENSEMBLE!

Bienvenue au FringeMTL!

Que vous ayez ou non expérimenté le FRINGE, vous pourrez sans doute découvrir des œuvres inspirantes et innovantes aux festivals FRINGE canadiens de cette année. Cet été, des milliers d'artistes vont monter sur scène lors de ces rassemblements qui célèbrent la diversité, le sens de la communauté et la liberté artistique.

C'est votre premier FRINGE ? Je vous conseille de vous procurer une passe multispectacle. Sélectionnez une valeur sûre (ou une production que vous apprécierez à tout coup), assistez à un spectacle qu'on vous aura recommandé et choisissez-en un au hasard dans le programme!

Rappelez-vous que, même si nous gérons l'événement, nous ne créons pas la tendance - c'est votre rôle ! Si vous aimez quelque chose, dites-le à votre entourage ! Le bouche-à-oreille reste le meilleur moyen d'assurer le succès d'un spectacle FRINGE.

En 2023, les FRINGE canadiens ont versé à leurs participants plus de 3,2 M$ en revenus de billetterie. En fringant avec nous, vous contribuez à un mouvement artistique qui est devenu une partie intégrante du paysage culturel canadien. Les festivals FRINGE appuient les artistes, créent de l'emploi et stimulent les économies locales. Et, comme toujours, les artistes conservent 100 % des profits de leurs ventes au guichet.

Allez, on FRINGE!

Welcome to FringeMTL!

Whether you're new to fringing or are a veteran fringer, you're sure to discover inspiring and innovative work at this year's Canadian FRINGE festivals. This summer, thousands of artists will take the stage nationwide as festival-goers gather to celebrate diversity, community and artistic freedom.

Fringing for the first time? I recommend you purchase a multi-show pass. Pick a sure bet (or a show you know you will love), attend a show another fringer recommended to you (perhaps while waiting in line for that first show!) and finally, choose a show at random from the programme!

Remember that, as festival producers, we're not the tastemakers - you are. If you see something you love, tell everyone! Word-of-mouth is key to the success of shows at the Fringe.

In 2023, Canadian FRINGE festivals returned over $3.2M in box office revenue to artists. By fringing with us, you're contributing to an artistic movement that has become an integral part of the Canadian cultural landscape. FRINGE festivals support artists, create jobs and drive local economies. And, as always, artists keep 100% of the profit from their ticket sales.

FRINGE on!

FRINGE WITH US!

Dans un dépotoir aux allures de royaume, BRUTALE BARBARA martyrise et brutalise à l'aide de sa bande. Elle maintient un régime de terreur auquel tou-te-s sont heureux-ses de participer, à défaut de connaître mieux. Playwright: Miranda Handford Rose auditions for a living. She's been auditioning for 20 years, and it's not a very good living. I mean, she does okay: her apartment is cheap and she lives with a roommate; she doesn't really need a car. Poverty is fine if you keep your expenses low ;) The thing is, now she's 45. No family, no house, no career. How did it end up this way? How did she end up in her forties and failing?

An absurd, penultimate HOA meeting — a Karen — a grappling of control. The "good" citizen. Will you tattle-tale on your neighbour to feel a sense of power? Can we listen to another side? It's a clown. It's a fever dream. It's comedy — If only the three little pigs had joined their HOA...
